

ABOUT THE AUTHORS

ARNOLD MOLINA AZURIN is a Research Fellow of the UP Center for Integrative and Development Studies. An anthropologist by training, he is also a poet whose work has won various literary prizes. His latest book, Reinventing the Filipino Sense of Being and Becoming is a UP Press best seller and has recently been reprinted.

EMMANUEL S DE DIOS is a Professor at the UP School of Economics and Fellow at the Philippine Center for Policy Studies. His research interests include the role of institutions in development and the history of thought.

RICARDO FERRER is a Fellow at the Philippine Center for Policy Studies. A full-time faculty member with the UP School of Economics, he maintains an appointment as Professorial Lecturer there.

MELCHOR P LALUNIO is a Project Consultant of the Development Academy of the Philippines until his early retirement.

JOSEPH Y LIM is a professor at the UP School of Economics and a Fellow at the Philippine Center for Policy Studies. He has written extensively on macro-economic policies, globalisation and their social impact.

AMADO M MENDOZA JR is an Associate Professor, Department of Political Science, College of Social Sciences and Philosophy at the UP Diliman. Along with the other authors in this volume, he is a Fellow of the Philippine Center for Policy Studies. Formerly a Vice-President of the Freedom from Debt Coalition, Prof. Mendoza is active in research and is currently working on his dissertation proposal.

CLARENCE PASCUAL is a Fellow at the Philippine Center for Policy Studies and is working toward a Ph. D. in Economics. He did a research for a securities trading firm until the Asian crisis hit.

MARIE ANTOINETTE G VIRTUCIO is the Director of the Policy Research Office of the Development Academy of the Philippines (DAP). Together with M. Lalunio, she gratefully acknowledges the guidance of Dr. Eduardo T. Gonzalez, President of DAP in writing their paper and the excellent research assistance of Ms. Iris Samson.