

UNIVERSITY OF THE PHILIPPINES
CENTER FOR INTEGRATIVE AND DEVELOPMENT STUDIES

ABOUT THE BOOK

Contesting the Philippines

Edited by Steven Rood and Veronica Taylor

PART I: ECONOMIC RESURGENCE

Structural Fiscal Reforms to Support Strong, Sustainable Growth with Equity

Benjamin E. Diokno

Political and Economic Update: DU30 at 2

Ronald U Mendoza

The Philippine Economy: Sustained Economic Growth amidst Short-Term Disturbances?

Myrna S Austria

The Philippine Service Export Economy and Prospects of Manufacturing

Antoinette R. Raquiza

The Philippine Climate Change Commitments and the Energy Transition to a Low-Carbon Future

Manuel P.S. Solis

Hey Big Spender: Filipino Migrants, Consumption and Social Change, 1980–2018

Mina Roces

PART II: WAGING LAWFARE IN THE PHILIPPINES

Impeachment under Duterte: Liberal Tool or Illiberal Weapon?

Cristina Regina Bonoan, Björn Dressel

Tipping the Balance? Politics, Personalities and Institutions in the Philippine Supreme Court

Imelda Deinla, Maria Lulu Reyes

Contesting Duterte's Drug War: Truth, Politics, Ethics

Nicole Curato, Bianca Ysabelle E. Franco

Prioritizing Prison Reform: The Real Challenges behind Managing Violent Extremist Prisoners in the Philippines

Clarke Jones, Raymund Narag

PART III: RESHAPING THE STATE UNDER DUTERTE

Local Civil-Military Relations during Emergency: Lessons and Norming from Marawi

Rosalie Arcala Hall

Emergency Mental Health and Psychosocial Support Provision for Marawi's Internally Displaced Persons

Gail Tan Ilagan

A Tale of Two Towns: Patterns of Violent Conflict in Maguindanao since the Framework Agreement on the Bangsamoro

Nicole Curato, Bianca Ysabelle E. Franco

The ARMM Is Gone: Long Live the BARMM

Steven Rood, Veronica L Taylor, Imelda Deinla

FORUM AND BOOK LAUNCH

07 AUGUST 2024 · 9:00 AM–12:00NN

9:00 AM–12:00 NN
 UP CIDS, Lower G/F, Ang Bahay ng Alumni
 UP Diliman, Quezon City

View Details • Sign Up

bit.ly/contesting87